INFORMATIONAL BULLETIN IB-13047

The department is pleased to announce that Probationary EMT/Firefighter Robert Bettis, EMT/Firefighter Ryan Hodges and EMT/Firefighter Technician Stephanie Timbrook have completed the process and requirements for consideration to be released as Attendant-in-Charge of patient care. Through their hard work and support from peers, they enable the department to provide a higher level of service to the community.

I am pleased to announce that as of the issuance of this informational bulletin they have received "Authorization to Practice" from the department's Operational Medical Director.

Robert is authorized to practice and serve as the Attendant-in-Charge at the EMT level.

Ryan and Stephanie are authorized to practice and serve at the EMT-Intermediate level.

I would like to thank everyone for their efforts with Robert, Ryan and Stephanie.
